Introduction

Many people are living below their heavenly potential; some are beggars despite being destined to be millionaires.

Some born-again Christians wake up with inexplicable marks on their bodies, some suffer from recurring tragedies, and still others engage in obsessive irrational conduct that causes them to regret their actions.

Why would a child of God wish to die and have suicidal thoughts? The operations of evil altars are the best explanation for this.

A young man with lacerations all over his body entered my office. In response to further questions, he stated that whenever he sleeps with his wife, he wakes up and finds himself under the bed. Not only that but most of the time after sexual intercourse with his wife, he will get flogged in his dream by someone with a masked face.

I inquired further by asking when did this start? He told me it started on the day of their honeymoon. He'd been in that predicament for fifteen years. During our deliverance prayer meeting, I discovered that his wife was a former marine cult priestess. This cult's members are all marine worshippers and every cult member is wedded to a marine deity.

Even though she had left the cult, the powers of the marine altar would not allow her to marry. The innocent husband was being attacked by the force of the evil altar. They eventually received their deliverance.

Every satanic altar has a priest or priestess. They are responsible for invoking the deity's spirit through sacrifice to act on behalf of or against a person. Sacrifice is the lifeblood of every altar. An evil altar is the spiritual dining table of the devil.

Many priceless souls are imprisoned on evil altars that function as prisons. The following are some examples of malevolent altar manifestations: restless marriages, repeated business failures, continual disappointments, poverty, horrible dreams, weird illnesses, mind blanking, punctuated breakthroughs, stunted spiritual growth, and so on.

If any of the above-mentioned scenarios apply to you, you are most likely imprisoned by an evil altar. You'll have to fight your way out. The good news is that there is a way of escape for you.

Evil altars are highways to hell, so it's no surprise that God told his descendants to remove all evil altars in the area he gave them: "These are the statutes and judgments which you shall be careful to observe in the land which the Lord God of your fathers is giving you to possess, all the days that you live on the earth. You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place" (Deuteronomy 12:1-3).

Because satanic altars are demonic strongholds that will only surrender when utmost force is employed, God expects his children to utilize spiritual warfare in dealing with them.

Stronghold demons are at the root of many long-standing problems. Spiritual warfare can be defined as an ongoing armed conflict between God's kingdom and Satan's rebellious kingdom.

It is the pitting of abrasive spiritual energies against one another in an attempt to impose dominance over the universe. There is no such thing as neutrality in this fight.

Either you are for God's kingdom, or you are for Satan, the evil one's kingdom. Every thought, word, and action you have either advance the kingdom of God or the kingdom of darkness.

God has given you the power to trample on all of the enemy's strength, and nothing will be able to harm you in any way. It is now up to you to put it to good use. The Bible says, "Behold, I give you the authority to trample on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy, and nothing shall by any means hurt you" (Luke 10:19).

In this book, you'll learn:

- What evil altars are and how they affect people's lives, marriages, finances, and businesses. An evil altar is a platform or separate place where sacrifices are offered by the agents of Satan, such as fetish priests, witches, wizards, sorcerers, voodoo specialists, or wicked persons to cage or hold the destiny of people down.
- The types of evil altars and how they operate. A knowledge of their operation could help you plan massive attacks against these evil altars.
- The symptoms of evil altars' presence. How will you even know that all the predicaments happening to you are the cause of evil altars' presence in your life? This book will give you their signs or indicators. Knowing that there is an evil presence in your life will help you stay alert and figure out how to get rid of them from your life. But being ignorant of their presence will lead you to destruction.

- The effects of evil altars, and how they can damage your life: Evil altars are raised to summon, judge, and condemn the destinies, marriages, greatness, and dreams of individuals. You can determine if evil altars are present in your life or whether you have become one of their victims by knowing the effects they can have on a person. Knowing the effects evil altars could bring to a person will help you know if there are present in your life or if you have become a victim. You'll have more courage as a result of this insight to look for solutions to remove them from your life. A lack of awareness of their effects will keep you in the dark.
- You'll get numerous prayer points to fight these evil altars. The effectiveness of the prayer words given in this book will destroy every evil altar in your life.
- The step-by-step process to get deliverance from evil altars.
- How to connect your prayer to the weapons of the saints to break and destroy the evil altars tormenting and sabotaging your life.
- How to pray the right way, what to say [the words to use] when praying against evil altars.

And there are many things you'll discover in this book that will help you achieve the highest form of spiritual knowledge and power to destroy evil altars. Keep reading, and you'll marvel at what you will find. The book is designed to help you get deliverance and peace of mind from evil altars.

I will urge you to read from one chapter to the next without skipping a chapter to another. One reason most books don't transform or help us is that we are so eager to read the next chapter; we don't pause and take the time to seriously consider what we have just read. We rush to the next truth without reflecting on what we have learned.

CHAPTER 1

What Is An Altar?

The Hebrew word for altar is mizbeah from a verbal root meaning “to slaughter.” Greek renders this word as thusiasterion “a place of sacrifice.” Thus, an altar is any structure on which offerings and sacrifices are made for religious purposes. In the Bible, there are around 400 references to altars.

The word altar first appears in Genesis 8:20, when Noah, after leaving the ark, built an altar to Yahveh (Yahveh [YHVH] is the Hebrew name of God). However, the concept was present in Genesis 4:3-4, when Cain and Abel brought their sacrifices to Yahveh. Even though the word altar is not mentioned in that verse, they most likely delivered their sacrifices on some sort of altar.

Before Yahveh gave Moses his Law, people-built altars out of whatever materials they could find. Altars were erected by Abraham (Genesis 12:7; 13:4; 13:18; 22:9), by Isaac (Genesis 26:25), by Jacob (33:20; 35:1–3), by Moses (Exodus 17:15), and by King Saul (1 Samuel 14:35).

Only two altars are described in the Tabernacle and later in the Temple after the great Theophany on biblical Mount Sinai: The Altar of Burnt Offering (Exodus 30:28) and the Altar of Incense (Exodus 30:1-10)

As visible reminders of Romans 12:1, which urges to “present yourself as a living sacrifice,” some believers build their own “altars” for personal worship. The battle between the flesh and the spirit rages on an invisible altar in every human heart.

We are effectively laying an area of our lives on the altar before Yahveh when we commit it to the Holy Spirit’s leadership.

Imagine Abraham’s altar, where he was instructed by Yahveh to sacrifice his son Isaac (Genesis 22:9). We might ask Yahveh what aspects of our lives he wants us to give to him. We can put it on the altar and let go of it symbolically.

We don’t need a level surface to commit our lives to God; we can do so at any time on the altar of our hearts.

CHAPTER 2

What Is An Evil Altar?

An evil altar is a platform or a distinct location where Satanic agents, such as fetish priests, witches, wizards, sorceries, or bad individuals, give sacrifices to trap or hold people's destiny down.

When this evil altar is raised against you, it immediately begins scattering whatever Yahveh (Yahveh [YHVH] is the Hebrew name of God) has or is about to bless you with. Evil altars are the destroyers of people's fates; they are dark strongholds used to influence and destroy people's destinies.

When we consider our current world, where evil is the norm, some people are willing to go to any length to make money or kill their fellow humans. All of this depravity takes place at the altar.

The scripture from Numbers 23:1-7 explains what happens at an altar. It described how Balak, the king of Moab, hired a false prophet (sorcerer) named Balaam to curse the children of Israel.

The name Balaam means "the ancient of the people, the destruction of the people." Balaam could be a witch doctor, wizard, or occultist who can be hired or bribed to torment you through an evil altar.

The name Balak means devastator, empty, or wasting. The name apparently derives from the sparsely used Hebrew verb (Balak), which means waste or lay waste. An emptier is a person who gets into contact with his victim, and permits him to live but takes away his life's contents.

Balak's ministry through Balaam was to empty the children of Israel by separating them from their God. To accomplish this, seven altars were built and seven sacrifices were made on each altar.

One of the causes of so many people's misfortunes is the result of evil altars erected by their forefathers and mothers in the name of comfort for themselves, their children, and their generation without considering the consequences.

Gideon was a powerful man of valor in Judges 6:1-20, yet his life was limited by his father's evil altar. This same type of altar is still speaking against some people today.

A young woman came to me for prayer and counseling, and she told me about her ordeal. She is always disappointed at the eve of great breakthroughs. On a particular day, she was chosen for an interview.

She had a dream on the eve of the interview in which she told the family head that she had an interview the next day, so the family head summoned some family members and they all escorted her to the interview.

By the time she woke up, surprise, it was a dream. She attended the interview the next day but was unable to obtain the job.

CHAPTER 3

Types of Evil Altars

Because the force behind an evil altar is primarily interested in capturing and destroying human destinies, the topic of altars is extremely crucial.

Apostle Paul found among the many altars erected in Athens one bearing the inscription, “To the unknown God” (Acts 17:23), or rather “to an [i.e., some] unknown God.” The reason for this inscription cannot be accurately determined now. It afforded the apostle the occasion of proclaiming the gospel to the “men of Athens.”

In the same way, a child of Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God) can raise an altar of prayer, praise, worship, thanksgiving, offering, and giving, which counteracts evil altars and demons and evil people could also do the same against the children of Yahveh.

There are different types of evil altars, let’s discuss some of them here:

Marine Altars

Some evil people use the power of water spirits to raise evil altars. They use marine spirits to wage war on people, families, nations, and even entire continents. When people commit sexual sin, whether deliberately or unintentionally, the marine spirits are summoned.

In most cases, the commitment continues to future generations. This will continue endlessly unless you repent and extricate yourself from the evil umbrella that has engulfed your entire family line.

This is referred to as collective captivity, in which members of a single-family share the same difficulties and bonds. This collective captive marine vehicle is transporting the entire family to a location where God Yahveh has not designed for them to go.

In most places of the world, marine altars are built. Many people have forged intergenerational covenants with these forces.

In the marine world, there are usually kings and queens who are worshipped. The marine world, like the rest of Satan's empire, is meticulously structured.

In the dream, marine spirits appear to deal ruthlessly with victims. Their victims are sexually abused.

The presence of water spirits can be felt in any location. They have penetrated the church (congregation), controlled trade, and manipulated individuals and governments. Their agents target high-ranking officials in government, industry, and even the church.

In the book of Exodus, Yahveh instructed Moses to go to River Nile early in the morning before Pharaoh gets there. It was so he could destroy the marine altar, to which Pharaoh frequently offered sacrifices (See Exodus 7:15-25).

How Do Marine Altars Operate?

- They chain and padlock all aspects of a person's life and destiny using marine chains and padlocks.
- They shoot arrows into people's life from the depths of the sea. Sickness, insanity, and poverty are introduced into such lives by these arrows.
- By means of sex, eating, and the sharing of clothes and other personal things, marine materials and deposits are transported into people by their agents.
- Marine priests, snakes, and other marine animals, such as the leviathan control, bewitch and afflict people from marine altars.

- They have warehouses full of people's properties, benefits, destinies, and virtues.
- Marine spirits also have underwater jails and courts where they hold their victims and pass judgment on them.
- Many innocent souls are buried in maritime burial cemeteries, which are found in the homes of marine agents and beneath the seas.
- Under the sea, there are marine witchcraft covens where people are summoned to make terrible decisions and judgments.
- Marine agents have exceptional monitoring abilities and can detect when their victims have opened the doors to assault by using techniques such as discouragement, evil confessions, and lies.
- Marine altars operate quickly and grab valuable items from victims. When they see the doors open, they rush in and steal. They steal breakthroughs, positions, wealth, and possessions, among other things.
- Marine altar encounters result in horrible oppression and afflictions. They have the ability to make a person insane.
- They can also transmit illness, early death, bad luck, and other negative aspects of their lives to the lives of others.
- Marine spirits prolong their own lives by exploiting the lives of others.
- Marine agents specialize in harassing people's lives with evil pots. They utilize it to drain people's goodness, as well as to introduce and maintain problems and illnesses. The water from these cauldrons is used to destroy people's lives and destinies.

Symptoms of Marine Altar Presence

Here are some indicators that a marine altar is present in your life or that you are being attacked by one:

1. Dreaming about swimming in the water. It means marine spirits have been successful in initiating and dedicating you.
2. You have a stubborn and vicious spirit husband or wife.
3. Crocodiles, water turtles, crabs, and serpents are among the sea species you may see in your dreams.
4. Marine snakes attack.

Family Altars

Long before Christianity, many countries were devoted to idol worship, and many families worshiped several gods before civilization. Even today, these spirits afflict their great-grandchildren.

Family altars continue to speak ill into the lives of many families, making them their slaves.

Many families are dealing with troubles like early death, barrenness, poverty, sicknesses, and diseases, all of which are the result of family altars. You must get rid of these evil altars, child of God.

The Bible says,

“You shall not make for yourself a carved image — any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth; you shall not bow down to them nor serve them. For I, the Lord your God, am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children to the third and fourth generations of those who hate Me. You shall break them with a rod of iron; You shall dash them to pieces like a potter's vessel” (Exodus 20:4-5, Psalm 2:9).

It is not an easy thing to pull down family altars. The forces underlying family altars are extremely powerful and tenacious. Because if you try to fight them with lower spiritual power, they'll break your bones and imprison you for challenging their powers and authority.

That is why many families invite pastors to perform various types of deliverance and liberation services in their homes.

So, if you know that you lack the spiritual strength to fight evil altars, you should get in touch with me so that I can assist you in getting rid of the evil altars in your life. Click here to contact me.

Any evil altar that is speaking against you and your family members will be destroyed by the following deliverance prayer points. But keep in mind that in order for these prayer points to work, you must be a person of tremendous spiritual power.

Territorial and Residential Altars

Territorial altars are the object of worship in a particular environment. Just as we've governmental boundaries, so we've spiritual boundaries. For every region, city, environment, village, and town, assigned demonic forces are controlling those areas. These forces are called territorial spirits.

Daniel 10:13 depicts the Prince of Persia, a territorial demon in charge of the Persian Kingdom. We also find the episode between Yahshua (the Hebrew name of the Savior) and the man tormented with legions of demons in Matthew 8:28-34, Mark 5:1-20, and Luke 8:26-39 when the demons pleaded with Yahshua not to drive them out of that territory. Why will they ask to be allowed to be in that territory? Because Satan has allotted it to them.

Most of the evil we observe in any given area are caused by territorial spirits. Some areas are known for crime. These areas have an overwhelming increase in crime rates. This is not only a physical or psychological issue; it is also a spiritual issue, as these territorial demons have possessed the youth and are controlling them to commit various crimes.

Prostitute-infested areas, drug-trafficking areas, kidnapping areas, theft areas, gaming areas, gambling areas, and so on can all be found in every country. These are all the works of territorial altars. These forces of darkness are responsible for the prevailing evil in all those environments, holding people captive in sin for their destruction.

The good news is that territorial spirits can be stopped, and we can stop them with the power of prayer. The deliverance prayer points against territorial spirits I provided can help you reclaim control over these forces.

Individually, we must rise to break the influence of territorial altars in our environment. When we pray, we summon the angels of Yahveh (Yahveh [YHVH] is the Hebrew name of God) to descend and destroy all evil altars.

Prayer is the key to disarming territorial altars. When we use faith to engage these deliverance prayer points against territorial altars, they will be completely destroyed. This is what Ava Yahveh (Ava is the Hebrew word for "Father"), told Moses and the people of Israel to do: "You shall utterly destroy all the places where the nations which you shall dispossess served their gods, on the high mountains and on the hills and under every green tree. And you shall destroy their altars, break their sacred pillars, and burn their wooden images with fire; you shall cut down the carved images of their gods and destroy their names from that place" (Deuteronomy 12:2-3).

When the Israelites came to the territory of the Moabites, they became threatened, and the king of Moab summoned a spiritualist called Balaam to curse the Israelites. Balaam's spiritual direction to pronounce the curse was to raise evil altars and offer animal sacrifices. But Yahveh made him pronounce blessings on the Israelites instead of curses. The power of the evil altars and the animal sacrifices were destroyed, and they couldn't have any power over the Israelites. That's the joy of being a child of God Yahveh.

Here is the account:

The Prophecies of Balaam

"Then the children of Israel moved, and camped in the plains of Moab on the side of the Jordan across from Jericho. Now Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites. And Moab was exceedingly afraid of the people because they were many, and Moab was sick with dread because of the children of Israel. So, Moab said to the elders of Midian, "Now this company will lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field." And Balak the son of Zippor was king of the Moabites at that time. Then he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor at Pethor, which is near the River in the land of the sons of his people, to call him, saying: “Look, a people has come from Egypt. See, they cover the face of the earth, and are settling next to me! Therefore please come at once, curse this people for me, for they are too mighty for me. Perhaps I shall be able to defeat them and drive them out of the land, for I know that he whom you bless is blessed, and he whom you curse is cursed” (Numbers 22:1-6).

“Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build seven altars for me here, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.” And Balak did just as Balaam had spoken, and Balak and Balaam offered a bull and a ram on each altar. Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stand by your burnt offering, and I will go; perhaps the Lord will come to meet me, and whatever He shows me I will tell you.” So he went to a desolate height. And God met Balaam, and he said to Him, “I have prepared the seven altars, and I have offered on each altar a bull and a ram.”

Then the Lord put a word in Balaam’s mouth, and said, “Return to Balak, and thus you shall speak.” So he returned to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, he and all the princes of Moab.

And he took up his oracle and said: “Balak the king of Moab has brought me from Aram, from the mountains of the east. ‘Come, curse Jacob for me, and come, denounce Israel!’ “How shall I curse whom God has not cursed? And how shall I denounce whom the LORD has not denounced? For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him; there! A people dwelling alone, not reckoning itself among the nations. “Who can count the dust of Jacob, or number one-fourth of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!”

Then Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I took you to curse my enemies, and look, you have blessed them bountifully!” So he answered and said, “Must I not take heed to speak what the Lord has put in my mouth?”

Then Balak said to him, “Please come with me to another place from which you may see them; you shall see only the outer part of them, and shall not see them all; curse them for me from there.” So he brought him to the field of Zophim, to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

And he said to Balak, “Stand here by your burnt offering while I meet the Lord over there.” Then the Lord met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, “Go back to Balak, and thus you shall speak.” So he came to him, and there he was, standing by his burnt offering, and the princes of Moab were with him. And Balak said to him, “What has the Lord spoken?”

Then he took up his oracle and said: “Rise up, Balak, and hear! Listen to me, son of Zippor! “God is not a man, that He should lie, nor a son of man, that He should repent.

Has He said, and will He not do? Or has He spoken, and will He not make it good? Behold, I have received a command to bless; He has blessed, and I cannot reverse it. “He has not observed iniquity in Jacob, nor has He seen wickedness in Israel.

The Lord his God is with him, and the shout of a King is among them. God brings them out of Egypt; He has strength like a wild ox. “For there is no sorcery against Jacob, nor any divination against Israel. It now must be said of Jacob, and of Israel, ‘Oh, what God has done!’ Look, a people rises like a lioness, and lifts itself up like a lion; it shall not lie down until it devours the prey, and drinks the blood of the slain.”

Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all, nor bless them at all!” So Balaam answered and said to Balak, “Did I not tell you, saying, ‘All that the Lord speaks, that I must do’?”

Then Balak said to Balaam, “Please come, I will take you to another place; perhaps it will please God that you may curse them for me from there.” So Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, that overlooks the wasteland. Then Balaam said to Balak, “Build for me here seven altars, and prepare for me here seven bulls and seven rams.” And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on every altar (Numbers 23:1-30).”

Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he did not go as at other times, to seek to use sorcery, but he set his face toward the wilderness. And Balaam raised his eyes, and saw Israel encamped according to their tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon him.

Then he took up his oracle and said: “The utterance of Balaam the son of Beor, The utterance of the man whose eyes are opened. The utterance of him who hears the words of God. Who sees the vision of the Almighty. Who falls down, with eyes wide open: “How lovely are your tents, O Jacob! Your dwellings, O Israel! Like valleys that stretch out, like gardens by the riverside, like aloes planted by the Lord, like cedars beside the waters. He shall pour water from his buckets, and his seed shall be in many waters.

“His king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted. “God brings him out of Egypt. He has strength like a wild ox. He shall consume the nations, his enemies. He shall break their bones and pierce them with his arrows. ‘He bows down, he lies down as a lion; and as a lion, who shall rouse him?’ “Blessed is he who blesses you, and cursed is he who curses you.”

Then Balak’s anger was aroused against Balaam, and he struck his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, “I called you to curse my enemies, and look, you have bountifully blessed them these three times! Now therefore, flee to your place. I said I would greatly honor you, but in fact, the Lord has kept you back from honor.” So, Balaam rose and departed and returned to his place; Balak also went his way. (Numbers 24:1-11, 25).

You see, because our enemies are constantly raising evil altars and making sacrifices on those altars against us, we also have to be vigilant, watchful, and prayerful to break free from these evil altars and their binding rules.

Forest Altars

For the sake of humankind and other living things, most conserved forests are not met to be trespassed on by humans or human activity. However, some people access such restricted areas in stealth to create evil altars against people.

Leaders of communities, mostly in Africa, advise their people not to enter restricted forests because they are the home of their gods or deities, and whoever, enters will be tormented or slain by the gods. This is a form of superstition. Nonetheless, some community leaders and members enter such forested areas to build evil altars against their neighbors.

Cemetery Altars

Some wicked people also go to the cemetery to build evil altars against people because they believe the cemetery is full of evil spirits, including the spirits of the dead.

Those who belong to bad fraternities or the occult visit the cemetery to perform rituals for wealth, curse others, and conduct other terrible deeds against humanity and for their own gain.

Road Junction or Cross Road Altars

Fetish priests, Juju men, and other spiritualists perform rituals for their clients at crossroads or road junctions, erecting altars.

Spiritually, witches and wizards also travel there to build altars against people.

Sun, Moon and Stars Altars

The sun, moon, and stars can be manipulated to operate against an individual and utilized as an evil altar.

The stars in their courses fought against Sisera, according to Judges 5:20: “They fought from the heavens; the stars from their courses fought against Sisera”. The Bible says in Psalms 121:6 that “neither the sun nor the moon will strike us during the day or at night.”

The king of Moab offered his eldest son (the heir to the throne) as a sacrifice to his evil altar, and Prophet Elisha’s prophecy was canceled: “And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too fierce for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but they could not. Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him as a burnt offering upon the wall; and there was great indignation against Israel. So they departed from him and returned to their own land” (2 Kings 3:26-27).

Witchcraft Altars

Witch altars are central to enchantment and are required for almost everything in the mod. It is the focal point of every witch's garden.

Perhaps no occultic craft is as well-known as WITCHCRAFT among all the ancient evil vices. Even Manasseh, the king of a righteous nation, Judah also practiced witchcraft, raised witchcraft altars, and made both animal and human sacrifices on them. The Bible says, “Also he caused his sons to pass through the fire in the Valley of the Son of Hinnom; he practiced soothsaying, used witchcraft and sorcery, and consulted mediums and spiritists. He did much evil in the sight of the Lord, to provoke Him to anger” (2 Chronicles 33:6).

Regrettably, witchcraft is a global force to be reckoned with. Every year, in the month of October, the entire country of America pays homage to the altar of witchcraft in the form of Halloween.

It's a fact that many of the race riots we are now witnessing on American streets are the result of the chickens coming home to roost in a country that celebrates witchcraft alongside the Bible. Coming from Africa, where witchcraft is widely practiced, many people are terrified of this oppressive force.

However, witchcraft is not limited to witches and wizards flying on mystical brooms in Harry Potter's movie. Witchcraft can also manifest itself as a spirit of loyalty to the truth or stubbornness toward Yahveh's creations. The Bible says, "For rebellion is as the sin of witchcraft, and stubbornness is as iniquity and idolatry" (1 Samuel 15:23).

The Bible makes it clear to us that Ava Yahveh (Ava is the Hebrew word for "Father") hates any form of witchcraft as well as occultic practices such as sorcery, incantations, casting spells, necromancy, star-gazing, astrology, fortune-telling, and so forth.

The powerful prayer points listed below can destroy any evil altar of witchcraft in your life.

5. Almighty Yahveh, let the throne of Yahshua HaMashiach be established in every area of my life.
6. Yahveh, let your thunder locate and dismantle the throne of witchcraft in my household.
7. I depose every throne that has exalted itself against my life in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.

Voodoo Altars

The Origin of Voodoo

Enslaved West Africans brought voodoo to New Orleans, Louisiana, U.S.A., where they merged their religious ceremonies and customs with those of the local Catholics.

Voodoo-Catholicism is another name for New Orleans voodoo. It is a religion connected to nature, spirits, and ancestors. During the slave uprising in Haiti in 1791, followers fled to New Orleans, where voodoo flourished as free people of color made the practice a significant part of their culture. In the 1800s, in New Orleans, voodoo queens and kings were influential spiritual and political figures.

The core value of New Orleans voodoo is that spirits, not one God, intervene in people's lives regularly. Rituals involving dancing, music, chanting, and snakes are some of the ways to connect with these spirits.

Today, you can still find gris-gris dolls, potions, and talismans in shops and homes all around the city, serving as a reminder of New Orleans' preoccupation with spirits, magic, and mystery. Readings, spiritual baths, prayer, and personal ceremony are all part of voodoo practices. It is used to help the poor, the hungry, and the sick, as well as to treat addictions, despair, and feelings of loneliness.

Famous Voodoo Personalities And Practitioners

Marie Laveau

Marie Laveau (1794–1881), a renowned practitioner buried at St. Louis Cemetery No. 1, was the most well-known voodoo queen. She regularly attended Mass at St. Louis Cathedral as a devoted Catholic. She urged other people to do as well. She resided in the French Quarter on St. Ann Street, where numerous individuals frequently halted to solicit her assistance at all hours of the day and night. She was a free woman of color who helped the sick and hungry while the yellow fever outbreak was going on.

She had a reputation for aiding slaves' escapees and enslaved servants. Before making any financial or business-related decisions, it is rumored that she was counseled by politicians, attorneys, and business people. Her home was decorated with candles, saint statues, shrines, and paraphernalia meant to ward off spirits. Nickels, paper flowers, and other donations can still be found on her tomb today. Stay at the Inn on St. Ann in the Marie Laveau Annex, the Creole Cottage she actually owned.

Dr. John

Dr. John, often known as Bayou John, was possibly one of New Orleans' most well-known voodoo kings. He was abducted as a slave from Senegal and brought to Cuba after being born there. He subsequently moved to New Orleans as a cotton roller, where he became part of the local voodoo community. He acquired land on Bayou Road and established a reputation for being a skilled Voodoo healer and fate teller. He was Marie Laveau's instructor.

Prayer Against Santeria and Voodoo Altars

Santeria is a pantheistic Afro-Cuban folk religion developed from the beliefs and customs of the Yoruba people and incorporating some elements of the Catholic religion.

Prayer Points:

1. Heavenly Father, I renounce this voodoo curse on me and my family that was sent to the North, South, East, and West and make it null and void in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.
2. I also renounce in the name of the Lord Yahshua HaMashiach the rituals and ceremonies used to cast on me any curse, hex, spell, or evil prayer, along with all dances, trances, communication with any demons, animal sacrifices, drums, use of shells, use of beads, cleansing rituals, Santeria or voodoo customs, or worship of any of the 7 Orishas.
3. I also reject any Catholic saints, statues, or fallen angels who were sacrificed or worshipped on my behalf. They have no impact on my life since the blood of the Lamb Yahshua HaMashiach covers me.
4. I take the Spirit's sword and cut any ties to any possessions they may have of mine, as well as any malevolent Orishas, Catholic saints, fallen angels, or Santeros.
5. Father Yahveh, I submit to your rule and assert my superiority over the forces of evil because of my position in Yahshua.
6. I renounce all curses, hexes, spells, evil prayers, or agendas against myself, my faith, and my family in the mighty name of Yahshua HaMashiach.
7. Yahveh, let none of the voodoo spells or curses continue to be effective, and the demons they summon should be restrained and unable to complete their tasks.

8. I ask that any curse or spell cast against me be returned seven times over to its author, who will then receive what they cast in Yahshua HaMashiach's name.
9. Ava Yahveh, I ask that let the blood of the Lamb Yahshua cleanse the ground they walk on so that nothing wrong they do here will be used for evil.
10. Ava Yahveh, I ask that the Holy Spirit warn enemies of sin, show them that they need to be rescued, and command them to cease all occult activities. I also ask that Satan be restrained from deafening their ears to the truth (2 Corinthians 4:4 and John 16:8).
11. By believing that Yahveh's angelic troops will protect my family and me, battle evil on our behalf, and ultimately triumph over it, I order them to do so in Yahshua HaMashiach's name.
12. In the name of Ava Yahveh, I sincerely thank you for the victory over all of the ceremonies and rituals, as well as any rituals performed on my behalf by a proxy.

Prayer to Reverse the Attacks of Enemies, Witches, Sorcerers, and Voodoo Hex

Reversal prayer is a very powerful type of prayer. Reversible prayer is also called back-to-sender prayer. The goal of reversible or back-to-sender prayer is to turn the tables on your enemy, causing any damage intended for you to wind up hurting them instead. It is not necessary to know the name of the person who has hexed you, but knowing your enemy's identity does help to make the reversal prayer more powerful.

Reversible Prayer Point:

1. May all the bad things you've done to me come back to haunt you [name of the enemy if known] in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.
2. Ava Yahveh, may I possess the resources and possessions that I lost owing to the curses of my enemies in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.
3. May all the happiness and joy that my enemies' evil deeds have kept from me come to me now in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.
4. Ava Yahveh, may the lies my enemies have told about me now be used against them in the name of Yahshua HaMashiach.

5. Ava Yahveh, may the pain my enemies have inflicted on me now cause them 10 times as much suffering in Yahshua HaMashiach's name.
6. Yahshua HaMashiach, may the loss my enemies made me experience now be a loss for them.
7. Ava Yahveh, may I now get back the sleep I lost worrying over the sloppy speech of my enemies in Yahshua HaMashiach's name.
8. Ava Yahveh, may all the good friends I have lost owing to the lies of my enemies now come back to me.
9. Any evil done against my destiny through the power of evil altar, be reversed by the blood of Yahshua HaMashiach. Amein.

What are the (evil) spirits behind evil altars?

These are a few of the many spirits behind evil altars:

- Marine spirits
- Ancestral spirits
- Familiar spirits
- Perverse Spirits
- Deaf and Dumb Spirits
- Witchcraft spirits
- Demons/gods
- Malevolent spirits
- Python spirits

CHAPTER 4

Signs of Evil Altar Presence

The following are a few symptoms that show you or your ministry are being targeted by evil altars. The following clues also point to the fact that the spirits from those altars are the ones that keep evil practices going.

1. Family limitation

This is when no one in a family rises past a specific level. When you look at certain households, you'll notice that no one has graduated college; the one who is trying to go to school is struggling to feed his family. There is a presence of an evil altar.

2. Evil patterns

These are occurrences that are linked to a specific period of time. Some people get sick at the same time every month or at the same time every year. When that time comes, they are always terrified. This is the doing of evil altars. It must be set ablaze.

3. When you suffer a particular affliction for a long period

The Bible says, "Weeping may last for a night, but gladness comes in the morning" (Psalm 30:5). Yahveh never promised that there would be no problems, only that they would be temporary. He says they will not last. So, when troubles become prolonged, there's an altar behind.

If you've done everything you can, and yet nothing seems to be moving, there is an altar behind them because all living things are meant to grow and evolve throughout time.

4. Hated by others for no reason.
  5. When you feel cobwebs on your body but can't see them, it's a clue that something is wrong.
  6. Experiencing sleep paralysis.
  7. The feeling of a presence or strange odor.
  8. In your dreams, you are either eating or being fed.
  9. Seeing snakes in your dreams.
  10. Experiencing a foul odor that only you can smell but no one else can.
  11. A spouse's desire for their mate vanishes.
  12. Nobody wants to marry you, but everyone wants to sleep with you.
  13. You are predisposed to lose or fail at something every year around the same time.
  14. You notice yourself replicating your relatives' futile routines in your life.
  15. You're stuck in a cycle of either not enough or just enough.
  16. Missing opportunities regularly.
  17. Incapable of getting married.
  18. Obstacles to conception.
  19. Miscarriages on multiple occasions.
  20. Hearing voices when no one is present.
  21. Items mysteriously get missing.
  22. Always dreaming about people who have passed away.
  23. Always dreaming about your old residence.
  24. Hearing weird knocks or doors that close or open on their own.
  25. Hearing pots and pans moving in a home where you are the only one.
  26. Roaches, rats, ants, centipedes, and other insects swarmed the house.
  27. Late-in-life accomplishments, such as marriage, promotion, and so on.
  28. Unseen forces touching you improperly when you are awake or sleeping.
  29. Material and financial prosperity disappear without no apparent reason.

30. Unseen forces are either attempting or having sex with you.
31. A peculiar illness that doctors are unable to correctly diagnose.
32. Everything you try to accomplish fails.
33. People will date you but not marry you.
34. People will take advantage of you and then abandon you when you require assistance.
35. Promises made to you are never kept.
36. A strange desire to have sex with someone other than your spouse.
37. Your congregation membership never exceeds a particular level.
38. Your congregation continues to have financial difficulties.
39. Sexual immorality among congregation leadership and members.
40. Obsessive control by assembly leaders.
41. Money and material possessions are obsessively pursued by congregation leaders.

If you're experiencing any of the aforementioned indicators, I advise that you shouldn't pray against the people. Rather, pray against the evil altars that are in control of them.

If you've ever used witchcraft to buy luck or damage someone, you should be ashamed. Know that the very evil altar you consulted to help you attain your goals is now working against you.

The ultimate goal of an evil altar is to disrupt the victim's God-ordained destiny and replace it with suffering and persecution. At the end of the day, evil altars are where destinies are swapped.

Signs of Evil Altar Presence In Your House

Have you recently moved into your new residence? Before settling down, did you consider breaking the evil altar in the house or room?

If you have not taken time off to deal with them, you may have an altar ruling over your house or room. This is because you had no idea what forces of power were behind the person who had been residing there before you.

Perhaps the altar has been there since the construction of the house. You must break it and raise a Godly one for yourself and your family, even if it is in your own home.

Altars are more than just physical structures. It could be a location.

In the Bible, altars are used for sacrifices, not merely for decoration (Exodus 20: 24). It is a place of spiritual fellowship with either clean or unclean spirits.

When Jacob built an altar in Bethel, it was the angels of God that were ascending and descending on it. There would have been a swarm of evil angels, sometimes known as demons if he had built a demonic one.

Most of what God established to bless His people has been counterfeited by the devil. The devil has taught his followers the secret of altars, which they utilize for evil. You might be wondering where the devil got this concept from.

Satan had been with God Yahveh from the beginning. He had witnessed heaven's order and understood how things are conducted there. As a result, he makes copies of things and instructs his followers on how to abuse them or use them for negative purposes.

So, when praying against evil altars, do not pray gently. It's a battle prayer, so pray fiercely.

Here are some of the signs that show evil altars are in your house:

1. Strange Sounds: Do you ever hear voices, footsteps, scraping, or even loud banging when there is no one else in the house? Your home is being hunted! Although spirits cannot be seen with the physical eye, you can hear the sounds they generate.

2. Usually Odor: Do you occasionally and regularly smell a usual perfume scent in your house or room which is different from the one you or any other person in your house use? Demons have scents, and they carry them around. Those who are spiritually sensitive or gifted can smell the scents of demons whenever they pay a visit.

3. Temperature difference: If you notice a temperature difference in a section of your room or house, you know something is wrong. Usually, you'll find the cold spot in surprising places. Recognize that you've been accompanied by a spirit all along.

4. Children's or pets' unusual behavior: Animals and children are considerably more sensitive to their environments than adults are, and their conduct can often alert you when something is wrong.

CHAPTER 5

Effects of Evil Altars

The spiritual world is strongly impacted by everything that appears in the physical world, both positively and negatively. A lot of spiritual interference affects human existence on earth, and one of the oldest tools utilized for this is the altar.

The devil has imitated most of the things that God Yahveh (Yahveh [YHVH] is the Hebrew name of God) created to bless His people. Of course, many people's problems can be linked to evil altars.

Evil altars are erected to steal, kill and destroy the lives of people. In the physical environment are crossroad altars, tree altars, photographic altars, image altars, clothing altars, river altars, altars of evil transfer, family shrines, altars of curses and so on.

Evil altars are raised to summon, judge, and condemn the destinies, marriages, greatness, and dreams of individuals. Our generation is incredibly possessed, demonized, and chock-full of transgressions, perversion, enchantments, and divination.

Additionally, the appearance of demonic altars brings about delayed blessings, recurring illness, irrational behavior, suicidal thoughts, unusual losses, mysterious discouragement, dreadful nightmares, and other things.

Many people still cling to the covenants and agreements that their fathers and forefathers signed on evil altars that they built hundreds of years ago.

According to Gideon's story in Judges 6, idolatry of Baal caused him and his family great suffering. He destroyed the family Baal altar and erected a Lord-centered altar in its stead: "Now it came to pass the same night that the Lord [YAHVEH] said to him, take your father's young bull, the second bull of seven years old, and tear down the altar of Baal that your father has, and cut down the wooden image that is beside it; and build an altar to the Lord [YHVH] your God on top of this rock in the proper arrangement, and take the second bull and offer a burnt sacrifice with the wood of the image which you shall cut down. So, Gideon took ten men from among his servants and did as the Lord [YAHVEH] had said to him. But because he feared his father's household and the men of the city too much to do it by day, he did it by night" (Judges 6:25-27).

Whether we like it or not, we are surrounded by several altars, places of evil sacrifices, and displays of demonic powers. This can be from jealous neighbors or tenants, coworkers at your place of employment, your place of business, uncles or aunts (relatives), the town you're from, or even your boss.

The significant issue here is that you need to understand how to deal with evil altars because if you remain silent and spiritually inactive, the words and negative utterances made against you will have a powerful effect and control over your life.

As Yahveh's children, we no longer construct physical altars but rather establish spiritual altars that serve as our operational base and serve as the location for daily contact (prayer), sacrifices of praises, devotion, statements of commitment, and worship to God (offered).

You and your family must build a live, enduring altar before Yahveh that can withstand any evil altar that has been or is being built against you and your loved ones. The Bible says, "For what man knows the things of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so no one knows the things of God except the Spirit of God" (1 Corinthians 2:1). Another scripture says, "praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints" (Ephesians 6:18).

CHAPTER 6

Deliverance from Evil Altars

Deliverance from evil altars is possible. If you are waiting for the evil altar to one day stop attacking your life, then you have waited too long. Because no evil altar can break on its own.

The strength of every evil altar is in the mystery of its operation. Your relief from the power of evil altars is guaranteed once you grasp the secrets to destroying it. And that's what we are about to discuss.

How to Get Rid of Evil Altars

These are some of the methods to get rid of evil altars from your life and home:

Method 1: Prayer

Prayer – The power of the tongue and words

What is prayer?

Prayer is the words you say to Yahveh (Yahveh [YHVH] is the Hebrew name of God). It is your way of communicating your needs, desires, and thoughts to Yahveh.

Prayer is a two-edged sword. One edge has the power to construct (create) and the other has the power to destroy. Prayer is a great weapon of construction and destruction.

Fr. Fortea says that “When tempted, prayer is our greatest weapon, a weapon as powerful as the greatest army or wealth. The demons know the power of prayer and fear it.”

Prayer, as a direct connection between you and Yahveh, is one of the most effective and easily accessed defenses against the Devil’s power. Fr. Fortea tells us that “it doesn’t matter whether prayer is spoken aloud or merely mental — it’s still just as powerful.”

So, prayer is talking to Yahveh and having him talk to you. It is spending time in communion with your heavenly father.

One day the five-year-old son of D.L. Moody went into the study room where his father sat writing. Wanting no interruption, Mr. Moody gruffly (sounding unfriendly or annoyed) asked, “Well, what do you want?” “Nothing, Daddy,” the boy replied. “I just wanted to be where you are.” Sitting on the floor, he began to amuse himself quietly. He desired only companionship.

To pray is to be where your creator is. When you are in his presence, you need nothing more to pray prevailingly.

It’s a good idea to cultivate a habit of daily prayer, but you can employ this spiritual tool whenever you feel an unusual temptation to make an immoral choice. Ask Yahveh to protect you and use His power or send His angels to banish any evil that may have attached itself to you.

Prayer is also communion. Communion is the feeling of sharing thoughts and emotions with someone. There are two ways to communion with your creator, Yahveh. They are:

1. Meditation/Imagination

Meditation is making yourself very calm by relaxing completely and thinking only about one thing.

Imagination is the ability to form pictures or ideas in your mind’s eye.

The Bible also teaches us to meditate on who Yahveh is, what he has done, and what he has said.

The Bible says, “Isaac went out to meditate and bow down [in prayer] in the field in the [early] evening; he raised his eyes and looked, and camels were coming” (Genesis 24:63 AMP).

The Bible says:

“This Book of the Law shall not depart from your mouth, but you shall meditate in it day and night, that you may observe to do according to all that is written in it. For then you will make your way prosperous, and then you will have good success” (Joshua 1:8).

“But his delight and desire are in the law of the Lord, and on His law, he habitually meditates by day and by night” (Psalm 1:2 AMP).

King David said:

“When I remember you upon my bed and meditate on you in the night watches...” (Psalm 63:6 AMP).

“My eyes anticipate the night watches and I am awake before the cry of the watchman, that I may meditate on your word” (Psalm 119:148 AMP).

“I will meditate on your precepts and have respect to your ways [the paths of life marked out by your law]. Princes also sat and talked against me, but your servant meditated on your statutes” (Psalm 119:15, 23 AMP).

“I call to remembrance my song on the night; with my heart, I meditate and my spirit searches diligently. I will meditate also upon all your works and consider all your mighty deeds” (Psalm 77:6, 12 AMP).

“Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight, O Yahveh, my [firm, impenetrable] Rock and my Redeemer” (Psalm 19:14 AMP).

“I remember the days of old; I meditate on all your works; I muse on the work of your hands” (Psalm 143:5).

It is not possible to be Yahveh’s friend aside from knowing what he says. You can’t love Yahveh unless you know him, and you can’t know him without knowing his word.

Though you cannot spend all day studying Yahveh’s Word, you can think about it throughout the day, recalling Bible verses you have read or memorized and pondering over them in your mind. Start growing in the knowledge of God and all of His ways by reading and studying the Bible regularly. The more of Yahveh’s Word you can get in you, the freer and stronger you will become in Yahveh over time.

“Some people presume meditation is a difficult and mysterious ritual practiced by some isolated monks and mystics. But the truth is that meditation is simply focused thinking — a skill anyone can learn and use anywhere.” – Pastor Rick Warren.

When you think about a problem over and over in your mind, it is called worry. In the same way, when you think about Yahveh’s Word over and over in your mind, that’s called meditation.

Friends share secrets, and Yahveh will share his secrets with you if you develop the habit of thinking about his word throughout the day.

The more time you spend meditating upon the word of Yahveh, the more you will understand the secrets of this life that most people don’t. The Bible says, “Friendship with God is reserved for those who reverence him. With them alone, he shares the secrets of his promises” (Psalm 25:14 LB).

Don’t waste time anymore. Start today by practicing constant conversation with Yahveh and continual meditation on his Word. Pray and meditate always because prayer lets you speak to Yahveh, and meditation lets Yahveh speak to you. Note that both are necessary for becoming a friend of Yahveh.

2. Thought /Thinking

Thought is something that you think of, for example, an idea or opinion. Though is also another way of communing with your creator. The Bible says, “You know everything I do; from far away you understand all my thoughts. You see me, whether I am working or resting; you know all my actions. Even before I speak, you already know what I will say” (Psalm 139:2-4, GNT).

You create your entire world by the way you think. The Bible says, “Be careful how you think; your life is shaped by your thoughts” (Proverbs 4:23, GNT).

Your thoughts are the primary creative forces in your life. All the people and situations in your life have only the meaning you give them by the way you think about them.

And when you change your thinking, you change your life, sometimes in seconds!

The most important principle of your personal life or business success is simply this: You become what you think about most of the time. Therefore, thought becomes prayer. The Bible says, “I know their thoughts and their deeds” (Isaiah 66:18a, GNT).

This is the great discovery upon which all religions, philosophies, metaphysics, schools of thought, and psychology are based.

Whatever you see or experience is the expression of the thinking of the people behind the phenomenon. It is not what happens to you but how you think about what happens to you that determines how you feel and react.

It is not the world outside of you that dictates your circumstances or conditions. It is the world inside you that creates the conditions of your life. The Bible says, “As for you, Solomon my son, know the God of your father [have personal knowledge of Him, be acquainted with, and understand Him; appreciate, heed, and cherish Him] and serve Him with a blameless heart and a willing mind; for the Lord searches all hearts and minds, and understands every intent and inclination of the thoughts. If you seek Him [inquiring for and of Him and requiring Him as your first and vital necessity] He will let you find Him; but [a]if you abandon (turn away from) Him, He will reject you forever” (1 Chronicles 28:9, AMP).

Our father Yahveh has given all of us a choice (read Deuteronomy 11:26-28; 30:15). You’re always free to choose. In the long run, no one forces you to think, feel or behave the way you do. Rather, you choose your emotions and your behaviors by the way you choose to think about the world around you and how you choose to think about what is happening to you.

Your choice is the critical determinant of everything you are and everything you become. Thought is creative. The Bible says, “The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; but of everyone that is hasty only to want” (Proverbs 21:5, KJV).

Your thoughts and feelings are continually changing. They are quickly affected by the events around you. For example, when you receive a piece of good news, your attitude immediately brightens, and you feel more positive toward everyone and everything. If on the other hand, you unexpectedly receive some bad news, you can immediately become upset, angry, and short-tempered, even if the news is inaccurate or untrue.

It is the way you interpret the event to yourself that determines how you react. “My friends, fill your minds with those things that are good and that deserve praise: things that are true, noble, right, pure, lovely, and honorable. Put into practice what you learned and received from me, both from my words and from my actions. And the God who gives us peace will be with you” (Philippians 4:8-9, GNT).

Connecting Prayer to the Weapons of the Saints.

Though prayer is not associated with any material thing when the Bible made mention of the armor of the saints, it doesn't make it a standalone weapon. It is linked to all the armor of the saints. Prayer among the weapons of the saints is like a grain of salt in a soup. Without salt, the soup will become tasteless. In the same way, without prayer, the other weapons will become unfunctional.

However, prayer alone cannot make all the saints' weapons become functional. It needs to be combined with the Law of God. The wisest man Solomon said, "If you do not obey the law, God will find your prayers too hateful to hear" (Proverbs 28:9, GNT). So, prayer without keeping of the Sabbath (Saturday) and the other Nine Commandments is an abomination to your Creator. Prayer becomes ineffective without the Law of God.

How Powerful is Prayer?

In six ways, I will tell you how powerful prayer is. Many believers I had an encounter with have experienced what I am about to share with you likewise myself. If you are a dedicated prayerful person, I know you have also experience either all or some of what I am about to share with you. Here are the six ways that prove prayer is a powerful weapon for believers.

Prayer has:

1. The power to heal.

Don't underestimate the power of prayer. The Bible says, "For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in God for pulling down strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of [the Messiah]" (2 Corinthians 10:4, 5).

Prayer has the power to heal and really heals. The Bible says, "So then, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you will be healed. The prayer of a good person has a powerful effect. Elijah was the same kind of person as we are. He prayed earnestly that there would be no rain, and no rain fell on the land for three and a half years. Once again he prayed and the sky poured out its rain and the earth produced its crops" (James 5: 16-18 GNT). The Bible again says, "When they came to the crowd, a man approached Jesus [Yahshua] and knelt before him Lord, have mercy on my son, he said. He has seizures and is suffering greatly. He often falls into the fire or into the water."

I brought him to your disciples, but they could not heal him. O unbelieving and perverse generation, Jesus [Yahshua] replied, how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring the boy here to me. Jesus [Yahshua] rebuked the demon, and it came out of the boy, and he was healed from that moment. Then the disciples came to Jesus [Yahshua] in private and asked, why couldn't we drive it out? He replied because you have so little faith. I tell you the truth, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you can say to this mountain, move from here to there and it will move. Nothing will be impossible for you. But this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting” (Matthew 17:14-21, NIV).

2. The power to overcome enemies.

By prayer, we win the battle over our enemies. Our enemies are defeated through prayer. The Bible says, “Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand” (Ephesians 6:11-13).

3. The power to conquer death.

By prayer, the dead son of the Shunammite woman was raised to life. The Bible says, “When Elisha came into the house, there was the child, lying dead on his bed. He went in therefore, shut the door behind the two of them, and prayed to the Lord. And he went up and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands; and he stretched himself out on the child, and the flesh of the child became warm. He returned and walked back and forth in the house, and again went up and stretched himself out on him; then the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes” (2 Kings 4:32-35).

Lazarus was raised from the dead to life by the power of prayer. The Bible says, “Then Jesus [Yahshua], again groaning in Himself, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay against it. Jesus [Yahshua] said, “Take away the stone.” Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to Him, “Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days.” Jesus [Yahshua] said to her, “Did I not say to you that if you would believe you would see the glory of God?” Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. And Jesus [Yahshua] lifted up His eyes and said, “Father, I thank You that You have heard Me. And I know that You always hear Me, but because of the people who are standing by I said this, that they may believe that You sent Me.” Now when He had said these things, He cried with a loud voice, “Lazarus, come forth!” And he who had died came out bound hand and foot with graveclothes, and his face was wrapped with a cloth. Jesus [Yahshua] said to them, “Loose him, and let him go” (John 11:38-44).

Tabitha, also known as Dorcas, was raised from the dead by the power of prayer. The Bible says, “At Joppa there was a certain disciple named Tabitha, which is translated Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and charitable deeds which she did. But it happened in those days that she became sick and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper room. And since Lydda was near Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them. Then Peter arose and went with them. When he had come, they brought him to the upper room. And all the widows stood by him weeping, showing the tunics and garments which Dorcas had made while she was with them. But Peter put them all out, and knelt down and prayed. And turning to the body he said, “Tabitha, arise.” And she opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter she sat up. Then he gave her his hand and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, he presented her alive” (Acts 9:36-41).

A young man Eutychus was brought back to life from the dead. The Bible says, “And in a window sat a certain young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into a deep sleep. He was overcome by sleep; and as Paul continued speaking, he fell down from the third story and was taken up dead. But Paul went down, fell on him, and embracing him said, “Do not trouble yourselves, for his life is in him.” Now when he had come up, had broken bread and eaten, and talked a long while, even till daybreak, he departed. And they brought the young man in alive, and they were not a little comforted” (Acts 20:9-12).

4. The power to set the physically challenged free

The blind, the lame, the dumb, the deaf, the hunchback, and leprosy can be set free by prayer. The Bible says, “And He entered the synagogue again, and a man was there who had a withered hand. So they watched Him closely, whether He would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse Him. And He said to the man who had the withered hand, “Step forward.” And when He had looked around at them with anger, being grieved by the hardness of their hearts, He said to the man, “Stretch out your hand.” And he stretched it out, and his hand was restored as whole as the other” (Mark 3:1-3, 5).

The following scripture quotations will tell you more about the power of prayer in setting the deformed free:

“And behold, a leper came and worshiped Him, saying, “Lord, if You are willing, You can make me clean.” Then Jesus [Yahshua] put out His hand and touched him, saying, “I am willing; be cleansed.” Immediately his leprosy was cleansed” (Matthew 8:2, 3).

“When Jesus [Yahshua] departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, “Son of David, have mercy on us!” And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus [Yahshua] said to them, “Do you believe that I am able to do this?” They said to Him, “Yes, Lord.” Then He touched their eyes, saying, “According to your faith let it be to you.” And their eyes were opened. And Jesus [Yahshua] sternly warned them, saying, “See that no one knows it” (Matthew 9:27-30).

“As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed. And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, “It was never seen like this in Israel” (Matthew 9:32, 33).

5. The power to cast out demons and break evil altars

It takes prayer to cast out demons and break evil altars. The Bible says, “When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick” (Matthew 8:16). Another Scripture says, “When He had come to the other side, to the country of the Gergesenes, there met Him two demon-possessed men, coming out of the tombs, exceedingly fierce, so that no one could pass that way. And suddenly they cried out, saying, “What have we to do with You, Jesus [Yahshua], You Son of God? Have You come here to torment us before the time?” Now a good way off from them there was a herd of many swine feeding. So the demons begged Him, saying, “If You cast us out, permit us to go away into the herd of swine.” And He said to them, “Go.” So when they had come out, they went into the herd of swine. And suddenly the whole herd of swine ran violently down the steep place into the sea, and perished in the water” (Matthew 8:28-32).

A dumb spirit was cast out by prayer. The Bible says, “When Jesus [Yahshua] saw that the people came running together, He rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, “Deaf and dumb spirit, I command you, come out of him and enter him no more!” Then the spirit cried out, convulsed him greatly, and came out of him. And he became as one dead, so that many said, “He is dead.” But Jesus took him by the hand and lifted him up, and he arose. And when He had come into the house, His disciples asked Him privately, “Why could we not cast it out?” So He said to them, “This kind can come out by nothing but prayer and fasting” (Mark 9:25-29).

6. The power to open eyes, change hearts, grant wisdom, and heal all wounds

The extent of the power of prayer cannot be underestimated. It has no bounds. The power of prayer opens both physical and spiritual eyes. The Bible says, “Then He came to Bethsaida; and they brought a blind man to Him, and begged Him to touch him. So He took the blind man by the hand and led him out of the town. And when He had spit on his eyes and put His hands on him, He asked him if he saw anything. And he looked up and said, “I see men like trees, walking.” Then He put His hands on his eyes again and made him look up. And he was restored and saw everyone clearly” (Mark 8:22-25). The Bible again says, “The blind see and the lame walk; the lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear; the dead are raised up and the poor have the gospel preached to them” (Matthew 11:5).

It changes stubborn and iron hearts. The Bible says, “Then He spoke a parable to them, that men always ought to pray and not lose heart, saying: “There was in a certain city a judge who did not fear God nor regard man. Now there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, ‘Get justice for me from my adversary.’ And he would not for a while; but afterward he said within himself, ‘Though I do not fear God nor regard man, yet because this widow troubles me I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.’” Then the Lord said, “Hear what the unjust judge said. And shall God not avenge His own elect who cry out day and night to Him, though He bears long with them? I tell you that He will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will He really find faith on the earth?” (Luke 18:1-8).

The power of prayer grants wisdom to the foolish. The Bible says, “If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him” (James 1:5).

Prayer heals all inner and outer wounds and hurts. The Bible says, “Now see that I, even I, am He, and there is no God besides Me; I kill and I make alive; I wound and I heal. Nor is there any who can deliver from My hand” (Deuteronomy 32:39).

What the Holy Scriptures say concerning prayer:

“You will make your prayer to Him, He will hear you, and you will pay your vows.” (Job 22:27).

“My voice You shall hear in the morning, O Lord. In the morning I will direct it to You, and I will look up” (Psalms 5:3).

“Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour” (Acts 3:1).

“But we will give ourselves continually to prayer and to the ministry of the word” (Acts 6:4).

“A devout man and one who feared God with all his household, who gave alms generously to the people, and prayed to God always. About the ninth hour of the day he saw clearly in a vision an angel of God coming in and saying to him, “Cornelius!” And when he observed him, he was afraid, and said, “What is it, lord?” So he said to him, “Your prayers and your alms have come up for a memorial before God” (Acts 10:2-4)

CHAPTER 7

Method 2: The Word of God

The word of Yahveh is spiritual food for the soul.

Studying the word of Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God) will help you develop a close, personal relationship with your Creator. Studying the word of Yahveh can change your perspectives, attitudes and heal and restore your soul.

The Bible, Yahveh's Word, is our instruction manual, or our road map, for life. It contains wisdom, encouragement, comfort, and life-changing power. And if there isn't a specific answer to a particular situation or problem, you'll find life principles that lead you to it.

The word of Yahveh is a powerful weapon that can destroy your enemies. The Bible says, "For the word of God is living and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the division of soul and spirit, and of joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart" (Hebrews 4:12).

In Matthew chapter 4, we found that Yahshua HaMashiach defeated the Devil with the word of Yahveh when he was tempted by the Devil.

Studying the word of Yahveh always is one of the proven ways to protect your body and soul from the attacks and manipulations of Satan, demons and evil altars.

Remember, knowledge is power. Therefore, when you equip yourself with the knowledge of your creator, Satan, and demons fear to come closer to you. Because they know they can be destroyed by it. The more you study the word of Yahveh, the more your spiritual life grows to maturity. The Devil will not dare to confront you.

Yahveh loves you unconditionally, and he wants to help you. He wants you to be whole in Yahshua and enjoy the great life he has plan for you. In His Word, you will find everything you need to discover restoration and wholeness and to be the person you were created to be. The key is studying the Bible and doing it consistently so you can continually grow in your relationship with Yahveh one day at a time.

The Bible says, "Heaven and earth will pass away, but My words will by no means pass away" (Matthew 24:35). This scripture shows how powerful the word of Yahveh is.

Here are some benefits of studying the word of Yahveh:

1. The word of Yahveh gives you direction. The Bible says, “Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path” (Psalm 119:105).
2. The word of Yahveh is the answer to all prayers. The Bible says, “If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you” (John 15:7).
3. The word of Yahveh nourishes you to grow. The Bible says, “But He answered and said, ‘It is written, ‘Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceeds from the mouth of God’” (Matthew 4:4).
4. The word of Yahveh helps to resist temptation. The Bible says, “Your word I have hidden in my heart, that I might not sin against You” (Psalm 119:11).
5. The word of Yahveh gives you freedom. The Bible says, “Then Jesus [Yahshua] said to those Jews who believed Him, “If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:31-32).
6. The Word of Yahveh becomes your weapon as you stand in the face of life’s challenges and struggles. The Bible says, “And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God” (Ephesians 6:17).

CHAPTER 8

Method 3: Fasting

What is fasting?

Fasting is giving up food, and water (or something else) for a period of time to focus your thoughts on Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God). In other words, fasting is a spiritual food for the soul and soul upliftment.

During the fasting period, you should read the Holy Scriptures, pray, and meditate on the word of Yahveh.

Fasting is mentioned in both the Old and New Testaments. Fasting is also a way of expressing grief and a means of humbling yourself before your creator (see Psalm 35:13). Throughout the Holy Scriptures, fasting and prayer are often mentioned together. Acts 13:3 says, “Then, having fasted and prayed...” In Luke 2:37, a widow served Yahveh with fasting and prayers night and day.

Prayer is a powerful tool for creation and destruction, as discussed in Chapter 6. Don't you believe that combining our prayers and fasting would make us unstoppable and powerful?

What Fasting and Prayer Can Do for Your Spiritual Life

Do not underestimate the power of fasting and prayer. The Bible says, “So then, confess your sins to one another and pray for one another, so that you will be healed. The prayer of a good person has a powerful effect. Elijah was the same kind of person as we are. He prayed earnestly that there would be no rain, and no rain fell on the land for three and a half years. Once again he prayed, and the sky poured out its rain and the earth produced the crops” (James 5:16-18, TEV).

The Bible again says, “However, this kind does not go out except by prayer and fasting” (Matthew 17:21).

Fasting and prayer are some of the greatest weapons of believers that aid us in our war against Satan and his minions. The Bible says, “The weapons we use in our fight are not the worlds’ weapons but God’s powerful weapons which, we use to destroy strongholds. We destroy false arguments; we pull down every proud obstacle that is raised against the knowledge of God (Yahveh); we take every thought captive and make it obey Christ (the Messiah)” (2 Corinthians 10:4-5, TEV).

Here are some 5 things fasting can do for your spiritual life:

(a) Fasting and prayer overcome your enemies. The Bible says, “Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore, take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand” (Ephesians 6:11-13).

(b) Fasting and prayer defeat and cast out demons. The Bible says, “When evening had come, they brought to Him many who were demon-possessed. And He cast out the spirits with a word, and healed all who were sick” (Matthew 8:16, see Matthew 8:28-32). Again, the Bible says, “And behold, a woman of Canaan came from that region and cried out to Him, saying, “Have mercy on me, O Lord, Son of David! My daughter is severely demon-possessed. Then Jesus [Yahshua] answered and said to her, “O woman, great is your faith! Let it be to you as you desire.” And her daughter was healed from that very hour” (Matthew 15:22, 28, see also Mark 9:14-29).

(c) Fasting and prayer draw you closer to your Creator, Yahveh. The Bible says, “Draw near to God and He will draw near to you” (James 4:8a).

(d) Fasting and prayer build our faith and keep it alive.

(e) Fasting and prayer help you hear from Yahveh. The Bible says, “Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us. And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him” (1 John 5:14, 15).

This method requires every victim to fast for 7 days, but if you can’t do the 7 days, then I recommend a minimum of 3 days. Start your fasting from 6 p.m. after your evening meal (dinner/supper) to 6 p.m. the next day at sunset before taking in another meal. And always remember to pray fervently during this fasting period.

Fruits to Avoid Before and After Breaking Your Fast

Avoid fruits that contain acids, such as orange, pineapple, and others. Acidic or citrus fruits have a low pH, meaning they are acidic. Citrus and other acidic foods may contribute to symptoms in those with upper gastrointestinal issues like an ulcer or reflux.

Here's a list of fruits and their pH from Clemson University. They are listed from most acidic to least:

1. Lemon juice (pH: 2.00–2.60)
2. Limes (pH: 2.00–2.80)
3. Blue plums (pH: 2.80–3.40)
4. Grapes (pH: 2.90–3.82)
5. Pomegranates (pH: 2.93–3.20)
6. Grapefruits (pH: 3.00–3.75)
7. Blueberries (pH: 3.12–3.33)
8. Pineapples (pH: 3.20–4.00)
9. Apples (pH: 3.30–4.00)
10. Peaches (pH: 3.30–4.05)
11. Oranges (pH: 3.69–4.34)
12. Tomatoes (pH: 4.30–4.90)

When you fast and pray, you are taking time away from a meal or an activity to devote your entire being to focus on Yahveh. You will become more sensitive to the voice of Yahveh and more attuned to hearing what Yahveh has to reveal to you. Yahveh will gently whisper in your mind what you were thinking at the time of your sin and your true purpose at that moment.

CHAPTER 9

Method 4: Listening to and Singing Godly Songs

Listening to and singing godly songs and dancing with it also helps to invite the presence of angelic beings to you.

Godly music and songs can be a powerful weapon to destroy enemies, evil spirits, and evil altars in your life.

Godly songs, musical instruments, and prayer have great connections.

The combination of godly songs, musical instruments, and prayer has powerful effects on anything and everyone. So, when the intention is to use godly music to construct, there will be construction, and if the intention is to destroy, there will be destruction. That's the power of godly music. It's a two-edged sword.

You should also remember that the great walls of Jericho were broken down by the power of music. The Israelites sang songs while walking around the wall of Jericho, and suddenly the thick walls of their enemies were broken down.

To defeat evil altars with this method, you must sing battle songs regularly or everyday until all yokes of evil altars are broken.

Four Ways Godly Music Defeats Evil Altars

1. Godly Music Drives Out Evil Spirits

“And it happened on the next day that the distressing spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied inside the house. So David played music with his hand, as at other times; but there was a spear in Saul’s hand. And Saul cast the spear, for he said, “I will pin David to the wall!” But David escaped his presence twice. Now Saul was afraid of David, because the Lord was with him, but had departed from Saul” (1 Samuel 18:10-12)

As King Saul was being harassed by demons, David would play and sing to Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God) in front of the king, and as he did so, the evil spirits would flee.

Could it be that you don't have enough praise songs and godly music playing in your home, which is why there is so much harassment happening there?

2. Godly Music Sets the Captives Free

“Having received such a charge, he put them into the inner prison and fastened their feet in the stocks. But at midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them. Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed

” (Acts 16:24-26)

Paul and Silas were stripped and beaten with rods and then put in stocks in the inner chamber of the prison. So, they brought them over, chained their feet with irons, and let them spend the night in a prison despite their open wounds, concussions, and maybe fractured ribs. You wouldn't understand what Paul and Silas went through if you imagined our clean, hygienic prisons.

They were there in the middle of the night, unsure of their fate—hanged, beheaded, or further flogged—and what did they do? Pray! We would cry out for help, and so did Paul and Silas. But they did more than that. Verse 25 says, “But at midnight, Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.”

Why were they singing? It was late in the night. They were in pain and tired. They were suffering at the hands of dishonest men. These things we could understand, but singing hymns! Today, if someone said to us, “When you're at your lowest, sing songs to God,” we probably would respond, “Back off with simplistic solutions. You've never been at the very bottom.” Silas and Paul, however, were at the bottom. And they sang praises to Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God). Sometimes the only solutions left in life are simple ones.

They were singing because they had discovered that praise songs to Yahveh are not only an expression of gratitude for his generosity but also a weapon of spiritual warfare.

The reason they were singing was because they had learned that singing to God Yahveh is not merely a response to his grace but also a weapon of spiritual warfare. They needed a demonstration of Yahveh's power, and they received it.

The same thing Yahveh accomplished for King Jehoshaphat of Judah, he also did for Paul and Silas. Verse 26 says: “Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened and everyone's chains were loosed.” Thus, it is clear once more that Yahveh welcomes the offering of praise songs and uses them as occasions to demonstrate his power. And we observe that the truth — that God Yahveh has designated the employment of spiritual songs as an efficient weapon against his arch-enemy Satan — is proven.

Against Satan and evil altars, the Holy Spirit is our best hope. However, how does the Holy Spirit fill and strengthen us? The Bible says, “And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord” (Ephesians 5:18-19). You can feel the fullness of the Holy Spirit if you have a heart that is singing. So, if you want to fight Satan and Evil altars by the fullness of the Spirit, you must fight them with sacred songs.

There will be occasions when evil altars and demons will turn against you. They'll attempt to confine you, torment you, suppress your feelings, and stifle your thought process so that you become disoriented and foggy.

Create a personal culture of godly music and praise songs as a method to escape it. Doing so will break your chains and release you from the bondage of evil altars and demons.

3. Godly Music Breaks Strongholds

“But it came to pass on the seventh day that they rose early, about the dawning of the day, and marched around the city seven times in the same manner. On that day only they marched around the city seven times. And the seventh time it happened, when the priests blew the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people: “Shout, for the Lord has given you the city!” ... So the people shouted when the priests blew the trumpets. And it happened when the people heard the sound of the trumpet, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat. Then the people went up into the city, every man straight before him, and they took the city” (Joshua 6:1-27)

Right now, evil altars and demons are formulating a plan to destroy you and your family. Your enemies will never have the upper hand. Yahveh will always provide you with a plan of attack if you create a personal culture in your life and worship him with sacred music.

Yahveh has made a promise to us. As the enemy approaches you in one direction, he will run away from you in seven directions (Deuteronomy 28:7).

Yahveh wants us to learn how to use our unique culture of praising Him in our love language.

Do this. Set aside 5-10 minutes each day to praise Yahveh with sacred songs.

4. Godly Music Wins Battles

“You will not need to fight in this battle. Position yourselves, stand still and see the salvation of the Lord, who is with you, O Judah and Jerusalem!’ Do not fear or be dismayed; tomorrow go out against them, for the Lord is with you.” And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground, and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem bowed before the Lord, worshipping the Lord. Then the Levites of the children of the Kohathites and of the children of the Korahites stood up to praise the Lord God of Israel with voices loud and high. So they rose early in the morning and went out into the Wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went out, Jehoshaphat stood and said, “Hear me, O Judah and you inhabitants of Jerusalem: Believe in the Lord your God, and you shall be established; believe His prophets, and you shall prosper.” And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed those who should sing to the Lord, and who should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army and were saying: “Praise the Lord, for His mercy endures forever.” Now when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushes against the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah; and they were defeated” (2 Chronicles 20:1-24)

In response to this promise, King Jehoshaphat of Judah prostrated himself before the ground and offered worship.

Then something unexpected happens. A few people stood up as everyone was still down deep on their faces before Yahveh. Together, they start to sing praises to Yahveh.

These people did not just stand up to praise the Lord because they were charismatic free spirits. They represent Israel’s Choir. They are the group that has been given the responsibility of leading Israel’s musical ministry ever since David’s time. They led the people in praising Yahveh for his promised victory while everyone else was still bowing before God.

The people got ready to confront the enemy after this wonderful time of responding to Yahveh's word through worship and praise songs. The next morning, they got up early and headed into the wilderness. As they proceed, Jehoshaphat urges them to put their faith in Yahveh's promise.

Then Jehoshaphat names his front-line soldiers. The frontline soldiers, however, were not charioteers or swordsmen. They are singers. Jehoshaphat aims to conquer with a choir. Yahveh had said that the battle was his to handle. What better way for Israel to confront its enemies than to lead the way with sacred songs of victory?

And although the triumph belongs to Yahveh, I believe the writer of this account wants to make it obvious that Yahveh grants victory through human means, specifically through the ministry of the choir. For it says in verse 22, “And when they began to sing and praise, the Lord set an ambush against the men of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir, who had come against Judah, so that they were routed.” Moab and Ammon attack Mount Seir first. They later turn on one another.

When it was all over, Jehoshaphat and his people carried the spoil for three days because the defeat was so severe.

I would infer the following advice from this account: singing sacred songs should be used in both spiritual worship and spiritual warfare. In verse 19, while everyone knelt to worship, the choir rose to sing. And in verse 21, the choir preceded the people with songs of victory as they walked out to confront the enemy.

And even more than that, I believe that the enemies of the Israelites were thrown into confusion by the sacred songs of Yahveh's people.

Therefore, God designated the singing of spiritual songs as a powerful weapon against his arch-enemy Satan. In the same way, you too, can employ spiritual songs as a powerful weapon against the evil altars tormenting your life.

Conclusion

When you are in the enemy camp, and the darkness are closing in, there is something stronger than your enemies, and that thing is singing. Throughout the beginning of time, people have utilized sacred or godly songs to battle their enemies.

For myself, I listen to music every single night before sleeping. Throughout the day, I frequently listen to music as well. My heartbeat has always been that. Yahveh frequently uses a particular praise hymn to convey a message when He desires to do so.

When we sing together for our savior Yahshua HaMashiach, we are calling out for him, and reaching out to the Holy Spirit with our hands raised. We are making an offering to our Lord in gratitude for the kindness, mercy, and love he consistently extends to us.

Sometimes you'll be given a set of songs to sing in order to convey a strong message during a particularly intense battle. On that battleground, Yahshua will lead you to the songs he desires you to experience. Yahshua will place the ideal songs on your heart to aid in your continued growth. Pay attention to the lyrics of those songs. Keep the message in mind.

I'll wrap off with two useful applications:

1. Include songs in your family and personal devotions.

The singing of the saints is intolerable to Satan, demons, and evil altars. Don't believe his lie that you can't sing. Not everyone has the talent, but anyone can sing. Not everyone can lead. Not everyone has the ability to read music or even stay on the proper keys, however, everyone can sing to Yahveh.

No matter how poorly you sing, God still enjoys hearing your song. Moreover, when you sing to your heavenly Father, woe to your enemies!

2. Be Aware That the Ministry of Song Is Warfare.

God has ordained that the choir's spiritual leadership positions be filled by the talented singers among us. The Kohathite Levites were given the responsibility of leading the musical ministry by David. They were tasked with carrying an ongoing offering of adoration and praise to Yahveh inside His temple. They were to lead and assist the people in singing to Yahveh. And their work involves fighting, as we saw in 2 Chronicles 20. The enemy was ambushed by Yahveh as soon as they started singing. Satan is the enemy, and sacred songs are the weapons of war. So, ambush evil altars with godly songs, and victory will be yours.

CHAPTER 10

Method 5: Fellowship

The enemy can keep you locked inside your head most easily through isolation. Edge yourself with people who are traveling the same path as you. Individuals you know care about you and are aware of your struggles.

It is better to discuss these issues with your assembly (church) than to keep them hidden inside of you. With prayer, love, worship, and a kind word, they are there to assist you in bearing your difficulties. We have a responsibility to help each other emerge from the darkness.

It is simple to feel as though no one could possibly understand you, as though you are completely consumed by sin, or as though you should feel guilty that you are going through a trial. Despite the difficulties and the temptations Yahshua HaMashiach (the Hebrew name of the Savior) faced, Yahshua prevailed over the world. He is close to the heartbroken.

The enemy will always attempt to separate us from the flock when we turn our backs on Yahshua and our fellowship. He is aware of the struggles we are all facing.

You are never by yourself. You are never alone, regardless of what you have done, witnessed, or experienced. Yahshua HaMashiach endured a great deal of abuse, beatings, torture, mockery, persecution, hunting, mockery, spitting, rejection, and misunderstanding.

However, despite all those difficulties, his love for us never failed, and His love is the solution. Being in fellowship with other believers helps build a strong protective shield that Satan, demons, and evil altars can't break. The spirits behind the evil altars in your life will flee away when they aren't able to stand the fellowship of believers.

Note: If you don't belong to any congregation or you're not in a true spirit-filled assembly, I advise you look for a good one. In a few minutes, I will tell you why it's important to join a good and spirit-filled assembly and the benefits it could bring you.

Okay, let's dive in now.

Join a Good, Spirit-Filled Assembly

Joining a good, spirit-filled assembly will help you grow spiritually over time, and give you the support you need to make and maintain good choices.

A Spirit-filled assembly teaches, instructs, inspires, and corrects. Without it, you risk straying from a spiritual life based upon the Word of Yahveh (the Hebrew name of God) to a spiritual life instructed by the self.

Therein lies vulnerability to evil altar attacks, influences, and manipulations.

Why Join A Good, Spirit-Filled Assembly

Many people today think, “Why should they join an assembly?” What is the point of joining? Moreover, many believers have been burned by a congregation They got involved in serving, only to have someone attack them or spread false rumors about them. Some were also involved in a congregation where they trusted the pastor, only to find out that the pastor was having an affair with some assembly members and that resulted in a lot of unpleasant conflict in the congregation. To avoid that kind of painful situation, many people don’t want to commit to any congregation. They have a personal relationship with the Son of God, but they are distrustful of getting too involved with the assembly.

Let me tell you this. To be an obedient believer and to protect yourself from the attacks and manipulations of Satan and evil altars, you must go beyond assembly attendance to being a committed, serving member of a local congregation. A person who professes the Messiah but feels no desire to be among his believing brothers and sisters is not a healthy believer.

John Stott said in his book, The Message of Ephesians: God’s New Society [IVP], p.129, “If the church is central to God’s purpose, as seen in both history and the gospel, it must surely also be central to our lives. How can we take lightly what God takes so seriously? How dare we push to the circumference what God has placed at the center?”

The centrality of the assembly to Yahveh’s purpose should be reason enough for you to be committed to an assembly.

The assembly helps you grow spiritually over time and gives you the support you need to maintain a righteous life.

These are other reasons why you should join an assembly:

1. Yahshua loved the assembly and gave himself for it.

If you love Yahshua the Messiah, you should love his assembly and commit yourself to its well-being. The Bible says, “Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ [the Messiah] also loved the church [assembly], and gave himself for it” (Ephesians 5:25, KJV). A believer in the Assembly of God, remember that Yahshua has married you — the assembly (church).

The following Scriptures explain it all:

“For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of Israel; the God of the whole earth shall he be called” (Isaiah 54:5, KJV).

For I am jealous for you with a godly jealousy. I promised you to one husband, Christ [the Messiah] so that I might present you as a pure virgin to him” (2 Corinthians 11:2, NIV).

“For this, cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ [the Messiah] and the church” (Ephesians 5:31, 32, KJV, see also Revelation 19:7-9; 21:2).

So, joining the assembly is one of your obligations as a wife to Yahshua, your husband. The Bible says, “First they gave themselves to the Lord; and then, by God’s will they gave themselves to us as well” (2 Corinthians 8:5b; GNT).

Yahveh has given everyone at least one spiritual gift to help build up Yahshua’s Assembly (cross-reference: Romans 12:3-8; 1 Corinthians 12:4-11; 1 Peter 4:10-11). If Yahshua loved his assembly enough to die for her, so those who love Yahshua the Messiah should love his assembly and be committed to her well-being.

2. You learn practically to love God and others.

To love someone is to be committed to the person. You need a strong enough commitment to help you work through personal conflicts and difficulties that inevitably arise in the assembly so that you grow in love for one another.

Commitment is the glue that holds relationships together and enables you to grow in love when there are conflicts. That's why living together outside of a committed marriage relationship is bound to fail — there's no lasting commitment. If you casually date the assembly or even if you move in and live together with an assembly for a while without the commitment of membership, you will bail out as soon as you encounter difficulties, as you surely will.

Steven J. Cole said, “Take the other analogy that the church is the body of Christ. What would happen if your hand decided, “I don't like being joined to this arm”? “It's too restrictive! When the arm says that we're going somewhere, I don't have any choice in the matter. I've got to go along. I'm going to cut myself off from this stupid arm so that I can have a little independence in life!” We all know that our hand would be absolutely useless if it were cut off from our arm!”

If you are not committed to other believers, you won't be able to serve Yahveh effectively. You won't be able to learn to grow in love for others. The Bible says, “If someone says, “I love God,” and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? And this commandment we have from Him: that he who loves God must love his brother also” (1 John 4:20, 21). Being committed to an assembly is where you learn practically to love Yahveh and others.

3. To place yourself under spiritual shepherds.

You need to place yourself under spiritual shepherds who will care for you and give an account of your soul.

Jonathan Leeman (Church Membership [Crossway], pp. 25-30) argues that “We need a paradigm shift regarding the local church. It isn't a club or voluntary organization where membership is optional if the club provides what you're looking for. It's not a group of people who like to get together and talk about religious ideas. It's not “a service provided, where the customer has all authority. Because Jesus is the Sovereign King over His church, “Christians don't join churches; they submit to them.”

Hebrews 13:17, KJV states, “Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.” This doesn’t mean that individual believers are absolved from being responsible to grow in holiness. And it doesn’t also mean blind submission to leaders who may violate or ignore Scripture by lording it over the flock. The Bible says, “Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly; nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock” (1 Peter 5:2, 3).

What this Scripture means is, submitting to the shepherds of the assembly, assuming that you all are seeking to obey Yahveh’s word. The Apostle Paul told the assembly in Thessalonica: “And we urge you, brethren, to recognize those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord and admonish you, and to esteem them very highly in love for their work’s sake. Be at peace among yourselves” (1 Thessalonians 5:12, 13).

4. To fulfill the Great Commission.

The assembly is Yahshua’s ordained means of fulfilling his Great Commission to make disciples of all nations. The assembly’s job is to be committed to planting local assemblies and training leaders to preach the Word and to make disciples. Paul also said that to the assembly in Philippians: “Only let your conduct be worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel” (Philippians 1:27).

The gospel of Yahshua can best be spread through combined and collaborative efforts. Throughout the history of the assembly, great men and women have attempted great things on their own and have often been successful. But more often, great things have been accomplished through the collaborative efforts of believers working together as one body (assembly). If we are to reach this world with the gospel message of Yahshua HaMashiach, we must share our efforts with other believers.

5. To have a specific place to serve your Creator.

Yahveh has given you a spiritual gift, which you are to use in serving him. The Bible says, “As every man hath received the gift, even so, minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God” (1 Peter 4:10, KJV). Stewardship means that each believer will give an account to the Master who entrusted the stewardship. In the parable of the talents (Matthew 25:14-30), the servant who was given one talent (a sum of money) only and buried it and gave it back to the master without any gain was rebuked by his master harshly. You shouldn't act like the servant given one talent only. And don't say, "I can't do much for the Lord because I am not an evangelist or pastor." You need to figure out how Yahveh wants you to serve and do it for him in a particular assembly where you are committed.

Yahveh, the God of Israel, is honored when we are obedient to him. He is glorified when his children come together in unity and harmony to find assurance, propagate His Word to the world, expose false gospels, and edify one another. God is glorified in and through the local assembly.

It is good to join a good, Spirit-filled assembly if you haven't or are not in a spirit-filled assembly that is to say, a true theocratic assembly. The Bible says, "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the Day approaching" (Hebrews 10:25, KJV). Bear in mind that not all churches or congregations are from Yahveh. These days more and more churches are being established by agents of Satan and Demons themselves. So beware!

What is a Spirit-filled Assembly?

A Spirit-filled assembly is a true theocratic assembly of Yahveh in the Messiah Yahshua, called Messianic Judaism. It is characterized by the obeying of Yahveh's Ten Commandments and the Testimony or Faith of Yahshua the Messiah. The Law of Yahveh keeps us from intentionally sinning against our Creator and humankind. The testimony and faith of Yahshua the Messiah grant us grace to live eternally. Any assembly or congregation that follows these two divine principles (the keeping of the Ten Commandments with more emphasis on the 7th Day Sabbath [Saturday] and the testimony or the faith of our Lord Yahshua the Messiah) is a true spirit-filled assembly. The Holy Scriptures confirm it:

Romans 7:12 says,

"Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good."

Romans 7:14 says,

"For we know that the law is spiritual..."

Romans 3:31 says,

“Do we then make void the law through faith? Certainly not! On the contrary, we establish the law.”

Revelation 12:17 says,

“And the dragon was enraged with the woman, and he went to make war with the rest of her offspring, who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus Christ [Yahshua HaMashiach].”

Revelation 14:12 says,

“Here is the patience of the saints; here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus [Yahshua].”

Revelation 19:10 says,

“And I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, “See that you do not do that! I am your fellow servant, and of your brethren who have the testimony of Jesus [Yahshua]. Worship God! For the testimony of Jesus [Yahshua] is the spirit of prophecy.”

Isaiah prophesied saying,

“To the law and to the testimony! If they do not speak according to this word, it is because there is no light in them” (Isaiah 8:20).

Signs of a Spirit-filled Assembly

1. Yahshua Centered

A good, Spirit-filled Assembly is an assembly that emphasizes the work of the Holy Spirit in the New Covenant to build up the assembly into the likeness of the Messiah. The Bible says, “For to this you were called, because Christ [the Messiah] also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” (1 Peter 2:21). Another Scriptures says, “Keep watch over yourselves and all the flock of which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers. Be shepherds of the church [the congregation] of God, which he bought with his own blood” (Acts 20:28; NIV). A Spirit-filled assembly imitates the values and character of Yahshua himself. The Bible says, “You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus [the Messiah Yahshua] had” (Philippians 2:5; NLT). Another Scripture says, “For other foundation can no man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ [Yahshua the Messiah]” (1 Corinthians 3:11).

2. One Accord (Unity)

The body of Yahshua cannot be built with divided minds or people. An important aspect of this building-up work of the Holy Spirit is to join diverse people into a single body united in and around Yahshua and the central tenets of the true gospel (read Ephesians 2:19-22; 4:3,12). The Father (Yahveh) and the Son (Yahshua) are one in mind, will, and purpose and so should the assemblies of God. Yahshua the Messiah desires unity and love among believers. Ellen G. White wrote, “Believers should make every effort to avoid tendencies (habits) that would divide them and bring dishonor to their cause. It is the purpose of God that His children shall blend in unity. Do they not expect to live together in the same heaven?... Those who refuse to work in harmony greatly dishonor God” – Testimonies for the Church. A Spirit-filled Assembly is the One Body of Yahshua (read 1 Corinthians 12:12-31, and Romans 12:4-21).

3. Purification

A true, Spirit-filled assembly is shaped into conformity to Yahshua HaMashiach, who leads them to purge their lives of remaining sin and bear the fruit of righteousness. The Bible says, “For if you live according to the flesh you will die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live. For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are sons of God” (Romans 8:13, 14). Another Scripture says, “I say then: Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh” (Galatians 5:16). Thus, a true Spirit-filled assembly will not reflect the principles of a secular society but exhibit God-centered righteousness.

4. Doctrinal Truthfulness

A good, Spirit-filled assembly is associated with the unadulterated truth as written in the Holy Scriptures, revealed by the Holy Spirit, and sealed with the precious blood of Yahshua. The Holy Spirit leads believers into all truth, enabling us to understand and discern what is true, and therefore hold fast to Yahveh’s revealed truth in Scripture without compromise. The following Holy Scriptures says it all:

“But we belong to God. Whoever knows God, listens to us; whoever does not belong to God does not listen to us. This then is how we can tell the difference between the spirit of truth and the spirit of error” (1 John 4:6 GNT).

“But he, the Spirit of truth, comes; he will guide you into all truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. He will bring glory to me by taking from what is mine and making it known to you” (John 16: 13-14 NIV).

“That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ [Yahshua HaMashiach], the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him” (Ephesians 1:17).

“Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God” (1 Corinthians 2:12; KJV).

So, join and connect with a good, Spirit-filled assembly in your area because you will need to get plugged into good teaching and good fellowship with other believers, like the Bible has told us not to forsake the assembling of ourselves together with one another (Hebrews 10:25).

5. Spiritual Empowerment and Improvement

A good, Spirit-filled assembly is filled with empowerment for boldly sharing the good news of salvation in Yahshua. The Bible says, “But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth” (Acts 1:8). The Holy Spirit also empowers believers with diverse spiritual gifts for building of the assembly as a whole. The Bible says, “And when they had prayed, the place where they were assembled together was shaken; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness” (Acts 4:31, see also 1 Corinthians 12:7-11).

Mount Olivet Messianic Judaism is a Spirit-filled Assembly

If you cannot find any church or congregation around you that has the signs of a good, Spirit-filled assembly, then you can join my assembly called Mount Olivet Messianic Judaism. This is because; Mount Olivet Messianic Judaism has passed an honest assessment which shows that there are clear signs of the spirit of God wonderfully at work in the assembly. We are not just relaxing because we are a spirit-filled assembly; we are still working hard for a continual filling by the Holy Spirit to work powerfully in our midst that we might be to a greater extent a Spirit-filled assembly. The Bible says, “And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit” (Ephesians 5:18 KJV). Don’t just be an assembly attendee, become a committed member.

If there is no branch of my assembly in your country or area and wants us to establish one there so you could fellowship with us, you can contact me to discuss it.

The Difference Between An Assembly Attendee And A Member

The key difference between an assembly (church) attendee and an assembly member is “commitment”. There are three differences between an assembly attendee and a member. They are:

1. An assembly (church) attendee is a spectator from the sidelines, but a member gets involved in the assembly.
2. An assembly attendee is a consumer, while a member is a contributor.
3. An assembly attendee wants to benefit from the assembly without sharing the responsibility, but a member wants the assembly to benefit from him or her as he or she also benefits from the assembly. The Bible says, “Anyone who receives instructions in the word must share all good things with his instructor” (Galatians 6:6 NIV).

You should be a committed assembly member to protect yourself from the attacks and the influence of evil altars and demons. The Bible says, “They committed themselves to the teaching of the apostles, the life together, the common meal, and the prayers” (Acts 2:42 MSG).

Appendix

Why Do You Use the Names “Yahveh” and “Yahshua” In This Book, Instead of Jehovah and Jesus?

I know some of my readers will love to know why I don't use the popular name of the Creator and the Savior in my books. So, I would like to explain it here and reveal the truth to you. The Bible says, “And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free” (John 8:32)

In this book, you came across the name “Yahveh” and “Yahshua,” and since many people do not know these names, I would like to explain the meaning of these names.

Satan and all demons fear only two powerful names. Surprisingly, such two powerful names are not Jehovah and Jesus Christ as you have been made to believe. The Bible says, “Who has ascended into heaven, or descended? Who has gathered the wind in His fists? Who has bound the waters in a garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is His name, and what is His Son's name, if you know?” (Proverbs 30:4)

The creator of heaven and earth has revealed His true name and the true name of his Son to me, and I have delivered a lot of people from spiritual marriage and demonic forces through these two powerful names. You will witness the power in these two powerful names whenever you continually pray with these names. If you pronounce these great names consistently in your prayers and then command the demonic spirits to leave, they will surrender to the power of these two great names and flee away.

I have so many testimonies from victims who have become free from evil spirits which have held them down for so many years through the use of the true sacred name of God and that of his son, the Messiah.

Note: The name that the Archangel Gabriel brought to Mary to be given to the Son of God was not “Jesus.” The Bible says, “Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved” (Acts 4:12), apart from the name Yahshua. If you want to get total deliverance and freedom from these demonic spirits, then learn to use the power of these two names to command the demons to leave you, and they will.

What Is the True and Powerful Name of the Creator?

The True Sacred Name of the Creator is not Jehovah. God and Lord are titles that the Creator bears; they are not the real powerful name of the Creator that demons tremble at. The true sacred and powerful name of the Creator of heaven and earth is “Yahveh” (YHVH — Yod Hey Vav Hey). Read Genesis 22:14, Exodus 6:2, 3; 17:1 and Psalm 83:18. Note that “Yahweh” is a close pronunciation to the true name “Yahveh,” but it is inaccurate. It is because there is no ‘w’ sound in the Hebrew language. Ava Yahveh is the true name of the Creator. Yahveh is a Hebrew word, and the Hebrew language is also a heavenly language. Ava means “Father,” and Yahveh means “I will be who I will be.”

According to the Book of Jewish Knowledge Encyclopedia, by Nathan Ausubel, “There is more than a tinge of irony for Jews in the thought that the first Biblical scholar to make the discovery that the Pentateuch was the composite product of at least two different documents was a French Roman Catholic, Jean Astruc (1684 – 1766), who thereby became the founder of modern Biblical criticism. He had arrived at his hypothesis in an interesting way. Nonplused by the obviously unnecessary repetitions and confusing chronology in the narrative portions of the Book of Genesis, he was even more puzzled to designate God. One was the ineffable Name. YHVH, which is pronounced “Yahveh” (in 1518 it was written for the first time as “Jehovah” by Peter Gallatin, the confessor of Pope Leo X). The other was the odd plural rendering Elohim (singular: El) — for God. From the appearance in the text of these two different names, Astruc deduced that there had been effected a fusion of two separate Scriptural documents in Genesis, most probably by Ezra the Scribe. Wherever the name Elohim appeared, Astruc ascribed the passage in which it was set to the documents that he named “Elohism,” and the passages in which YHVH occurred he attributed to the “Yahvist” version”

What Is the True and Powerful Name of the Savior?

In the same way, Jesus Christ is not the true name of the son of Yahveh, so are the names “Yesu,” “Isous,” and “Yeshua.” Yesu is a Latin word, Isous is a Greek word, and Yeshua is an Aramaic word. Yahshua HaMashiach [translation: Yahshua the Messiah] is the only true sacred, and powerful name of the son of Yahveh, which demons fear and tremble at. Yahshua is a Hebrew name given to the Messiah by Yahveh through the Archangel Gabriel. Yahshua means “Yahveh saves, or Yahveh is our savior,” and Mashiach (Translation: Messiah) means “The Anointed One.”

Why Mashiach/Messiah and Not “Christ?”

In ancient Greek, “christos” means righteous, virtuous, moral, good, ethical, just, upright, and anointed. Later, in the New Testament, the word Messiah was translated into the Greek word Christos. The English word Christ comes from this Greek word. The Savior of the world is not a Greek but a Jew. You must call him by the name given to him by His father and no other name bestowed on him by humans.

The meaning of Ava and Abba

- Ava is a Hebrew Word that means “Father.”
- Abba is an Aramaic word that means “Father.”

The meaning of Amein

- Amein is a Hebrew word that means “so be it, truth and certainty.”

The meaning of HaMashiach

- Ha is a Hebrew word that means “the.”
  - Mashiach is a Hebrew word that means “anointed.”
- So HaMashiach means “The Anointed.”*

Why You Shouldn’t Pronounce the Word “Amen” In or After Your Prayers

Don’t say “Amen,” for it is an inappropriate word. Amen is the name of an Egyptian god inserted into the Bible during its translation. Amen — a primeval Egyptian personification of air and breath; worshipped especially at Thebes. Amein is the right word in the original Hebrew Bible, which means so be it or let it be so, truth, and certainty. The Bible says, “And in all that I have said to you, be circumspect and make no mention of the name of other gods, nor let it be heard from your mouth.” (Exodus 23:13, see also Hosea 2:16, 17). # The Easiest Way to Review My Books and Why You Should

Why You Should Review this Book

Before showing you the easiest way to review this book, let me first tell you why it is important to review this book you have just read and other books of mine.

The following are the most essential reasons why you should review my books:

1. You were made for a mission

God is at work in this world and wants you to join him. You are a co-worker of God. The Bible says, “We then, as workers together with Him also plead with you not to receive the grace of God in vain” (2 Corinthians 6:1). This assignment is called your mission. God wants you to have both a ministry in the Body of Yahshua and a mission in the world. Your ministry is your service to believers, and your mission is your service to unbelievers. Fulfilling your mission in the world is God’s purpose for your life.

Your life mission is both shared and specific. One part of it is a responsibility you share with every other godly person or unbeliever, and the other part is an assignment that is unique to you.

What is your mission? Your mission is to introduce people to God for they to gain freedom and happiness in life! God wants to redeem human beings from Satan and reconcile them to Himself so we can fulfill the five purposes he created us for: to love him, to be a part of his family, to become like him, to serve him, and to tell others about him. Once we are his, God uses us to reach others. He saves us and then sends us out. The Bible says, “We have been sent to speak for Christ [the Messiah]” (2 Corinthians 5:20; NCV). We are the messengers of God’s love and purposes to the world.

So, reviewing this book and other books of mine is a fulfillment of the purpose God created you for to tell others about him and set the captive free. Your positive review will help others in the following ways:

- ✓ To trust the book and purchase it in order to find the truth and/or solutions to their problems.

- ✓ To shortcut research and make decisions faster with greater confidence than ever before.

2. The privilege of transforming other lives

Sharing your experience and recovery with others is your greatest service to believers and unbelievers. It inspires the broken-hearted, strengthens the weak and gives hope to the hopeless.

If others can gain freedom from the attacks of demonic spirits and retain a demon-free state in life, it is because of your positive review that inspired them. In so doing, you are at work with God in this world, fulfilling God's purpose for making you.

How to Close and Seal Your Chakras

If demons are harassing you sexually, chances may be that your body gateways may have been opened to them.

If you are possessed by demons, chances are that one or more of your body doors have been distorted giving access to demons.

This guide will help you purge, close, and seal your body gateways so that demons may not have access to your body and soul again.

It makes it clear that human spirits, warlocks, juju men, fetish priests, sorcerers, witches, and people who are skilled in soul travel or astral travel/projection can enter into one or more of the 7 chakras (body gateways) with their own spirits and function as if they were a demon spirit.

If you have opened any of these 7 gateways, you need to have demons expelled from each chakra, and then each chakra must be shut down, and closed tightly, the way God intends for them to be, and that's what this bonus guide teaches.

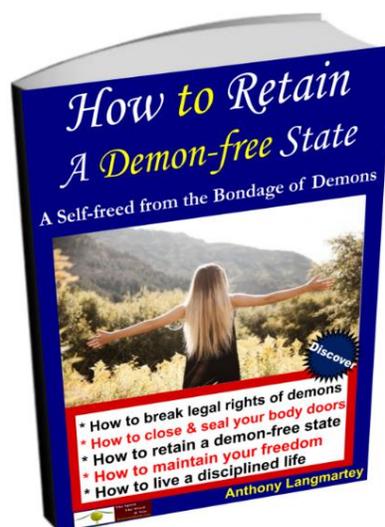

The methods in this guide for purging, closing, and sealing the 7 doors of the human body are BIBLICAL and DIVINE. It has nothing to do with occultism or yoga teachings and beliefs.

I have revealed the secret keys to purge, close, seal your chakras (body doors) in the book.

Spiritual Battles (Volume One): The Origin and Fall of Satan

There is spiritual warfare ongoing that everyone is part of. Consciously or unconsciously, everyone is involved in this spiritual warfare.

You have to win this spiritual battle going on in your life. Satan is our antagonist since the creation of humankind.

Therefore, before getting to know how to win your spiritual battles over Satan, you first have to know more about Satan and must understand why he is here in the first place.

The study of “the origin and fall of Satan” is a fascinating yet challenging topic in biblical literature. There is much to be learned from a survey of this theme.

There have been myths about Lucifer/Satan, which you have to be aware of. This book reveals the truth concerning those myths about Lucifer/Satan.

Do you know the actual date on which Satan and his angels were cast out of heaven? Others will say the Bible did not provide one. But that’s not true. I have taken a critical look at the Bible and have found out the actual date on which Satan and his angels were cast out of heaven to this earth. This, I have revealed in this book.

Satan is already a fallen angel. Is there still a final fall of Satan? You will find out yourself when you grab a copy of the book.

The book discusses the origin and fall of Satan.

In the Origin and Fall of Satan, you will discover the answers to many captivating questions, such as:

- On which date was Satan and his angels cast out of heaven?
- Did sin begin with Adam or Satan?
- Why would God allow evil to continue to exist?
- Why was Satan cast out of heaven?
- When did Satan fell from the truth?

Where can you find the answers to such thought-provoking and spiritual questions that have been asked so many times over and over again?

Wisely consider the biblical response given in this book since it is the only completely reliable foundation for information about Satan.

Beloved, my advice to you is to reject any unqualified information drawn from sources outside the Bible, such as the current ideas, traditions, and cultures of the world.

Do not rely on the teachings of men rather on the teachings of the Holy Spirit.

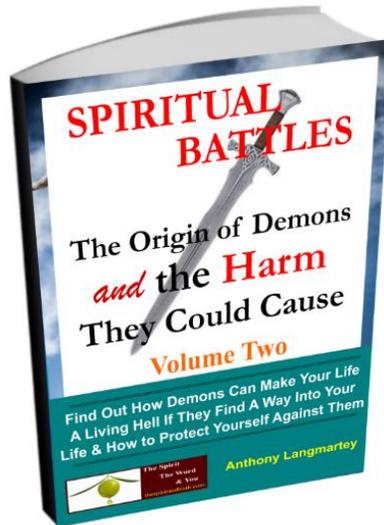

This book contains sound answers found in the Bible to your questions concerning the origin and fall of Satan.

Spiritual Battles (Volume Three): How to Win Your Battles Over Satan and Demons

Beloved, we are in a world of spiritual warfare, and our very lives are at war. Are you winning or losing? The truth is that many people are losing more battles than they are supposed to win. Many losers are enduring it because they don't recognize the enemy when they see it. Moreover, many people have no idea how to respond.

Your antagonist is not the problems you see, such as frustrations, depression, dysfunctionalities, a broken marriage, addiction, diseases, illness, or financial troubles, just to mention a few. These are just the symptoms, not your enemies. Your battle is against your true enemies: Satan and his followers (demons, spirit wives and husbands, perverse spirits, marine spirits, sorcerers, witches, wizards, etc.).

Nevertheless, Satan and demons are not afraid of a mere human like you, so how are you supposed to fight? More importantly, how are you supposed to win?

While society and men of God tell us we can simply react, the truth of the matter is that a common wish, hope, and prayer aren't the best responses to attack our enemies. You have to be strategic and tactical in your reactions to your enemies.

Learning to fight biblically and effectively is the key to winning the battle over your enemies.

In the Spiritual Battles Volume 3: How to Win Your Battles Over Satan and Demons, you will discover:

1. The devices or weapons of Satan and demons.
2. Why do Satan and Demons hate us.
3. When did our war begin with Satan?
4. The two most powerful weapons that were used to cast Satan and his angels out of heaven.
5. The Three Levels of Spiritual Power.
6. The weapons that are capable of destroying the great leviathan, Satan.
7. The efficacy and effectiveness of the weapons of the Saints.
8. Powerful Words to Battle Satan and all Demons to victory.

There is a powerful enemy out there to destroy you. You are on the battlefield, so you can't escape the war.

This spiritual war has crucial consequences in your everyday life, and its outcome will depend on whether you win or lose the war.

Satan and demons are not just mere human beings that can be whipped with just a mere cane. To engage Satan and Demons, you need guidelines to win your battles over them.

This book provides the guidelines to win your battles over Satan and demons. This book will prepare you for the battle.

Spiritual Battles are best fought with the right weapons, and as a result, courage replaces fear, and victory takes the place of failure.

The Holy Scripture says, “Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which you were also called and have confessed the good confession in the presence of many witnesses” (1 Timothy 6:12).
